

RECORDED PHONE CONVERSATION BETWEEN AMBER FREY AND SCOTT PETERSON:
(February 7, 2003 at 2237 hours)

FREY: ...strongly about uh...seeing me?

PETERSON: Just because I feel sorry for all the things you're having to go through (sounds like crying). Today when I spoke to you on the phone, you know, heard how upset you were in the morning. (beep) I just...I just know that if we got to sit down and see each other that I think of how both of us could be experiencing (beep) something so unbelievable that I think it would help both of us to, you know (beep) help survive it better. (beep, beep, beep) One thing I wanted us to do is throw it at ya, _____ but I wanted to see you, I mean I wanted to do that. But I don't know, I just think it would be so good for us.

FREY: Scott, I...I just don't see how that would be possible in doing.

PETERSON: Really?

FREY: If they're finding you...the media is finding you in Mexico, they'd certainly find you again in Fresno. And that just really wouldn't be good for me especially right now, Scott.

PETERSON: I know you could. And I um...I'm just willing to do it because I think it's so necessary but I just wanted to ask.

FREY: You just what?

PETERSON: I just wanted to ask you, needed to ask you.

FREY: What do you think um...would come of that?

PETERSON: What's that?

FREY: I said what do you...what do you think or what do you feel would come of, you know, seeing me?

PETERSON: I just think that it would help both of us so much in easing the things that we're going through. I mean, you know, I think we talk on the phone because that...that just um...you know, you know I care about you and I think you care about me as well. And I think it would help tremendously in stuff we're going through and what's happening but I don't know, I just never felt such a strong desire as I do. (sniff)

PETERSON:

You know, I'm such a terrible to communicator over the phone and I just...I desire so much to comfort you. Maybe that's what it is, is I know I can't do that over the phone.
